

The Trace Mineral/Fulvic Acid Link

“Energetically Active” Mineral Force™

Researchers have linked the luminous “points of light” in the above sample with high concentrations of fulvic acid.<sup>11</sup> Some researchers suggest that these trace mineral-fulvic acid energy bundles are essential to life processes and to the vitality of all living things.<sup>12</sup>

On a daily basis, it’s easy to incorporate this life energy into your busy lifestyle. The plant-based composition of Mineral Force™ is a concentrated source of these important energy components in an easy-to-take mineral drink.

The Amazing Benefits of Zeolite!

Zeolite is an intricate crystalline formation derived from molten volcanic minerals which have been fused with water. Seen under high magnification, this non-toxic mineral complex has a honeycomb-like structure composed of thousands of ultra-microscopic “micro-chambers.” Zeolite’s negative electrical field allows it to attract positively charged toxins along with acid wastes, literally sweeping the body of biological debris like a miniature vacuum cleaner! Reported benefits of Zeolite include:

- Improved free radical absorption
- Improved detoxification
- Reduces acidosis and balances pH
- Granted U.S. Patent 6288045, “Epithelial cell cancer drug.”

Mineral Force™ with Zeolite is the ultimate mineral supplement. Enjoy its unique benefits every day!

About Mineral Force™

Optimum healing means providing the best supplements modern nutritional science can offer combined with revolutionary new discoveries in the field of Subtle Energy Physics. NutriLink's groundbreaking Mineral Force™ unites plant based ionic minerals, naturally rich in fulvic acid, with Subtle Energy enhancements to provide a uniquely powerful mineral supplement.

How Is Mineral Force™ Different?

NutriLink's Mineral Force™ is produced using state-of-the-art processing that guarantees purity and the highest level of biological activity. No chemical solvents are used.

Our plant-based minerals were deposited in nature's pantry centuries before environmental pollution or chemical toxins could degrade their rich nutrient value. Mineral Force™ represents the harvest of these naturally occurring ionic minerals.

Why Do I Need Plant-Based Minerals?

A variety of minerals are known to be essential for optimum health. Unfortunately, adequate levels of these minerals are not typically found in our foods today. According to Senate Document 264 (published in 1936) 80-85% of American farming soils proved to be depleted of essential minerals. Today, we know that food grown on those mineral deficient soils is virtually devoid of the necessary minerals to sustain health and vitality.

For many years scientists and researchers have been sounding the alarm of the health dangers associated with chronic mineral deficiencies:

- “All diseases are related to organic mineral deficiency.” (Dr. Linus Pauling, twice Nobel Prize-winning chemist)
- “Without minerals, vitamins have no function.” (Dr. Charles Northen)
- “The beginning of debilitating disease starts with demineralization of the body.” (Dr. Robert La Faye )

The body is on the hunt for organic trace minerals every day. Mineral Force™ provides these precious minerals in a form that is bioavailable and readily absorbable!

The Miracle of Fulvic Acid

Mineral Force™ has the highest fulvic acid content (up to 42%) in tests comparing the mineral products of 130 companies! Fulvic acid (not to be confused with the B-vitamin, folic acid) is a remarkable nutrient that is absolutely essential in the life processes of plants and animals.<sup>1</sup> By carefully choosing a uniquely rich organic source of humic material for Mineral Force™ plant based minerals, high levels of naturally-occurring fulvic acid is assured.

The following are some of the amazing benefits of this remarkable organic compound:

- Fulvic acid has the ability to remove toxic substances: Pesticides, herbicides, heavy metals, even radioactive contaminants.
- Fulvic Acid “supercharges” the immune system by inhibiting the replication of pathogens.
- Fulvic acid has powerful anti-inflammatory and anti-oxidant properties.
- Fulvic acid transforms toxic metals by turning them into readily absorbable bioavailable mineral forms that benefit the metabolism.
- Fulvic acid efficiently transports nutrients through cell walls and enhances the function of other supplements.
- Fulvic acid stimulates and balances cells, creating optimum growth and healthy replication of new cells.
- Fulvic acid is the most powerful natural free radical scavenger and antioxidant discovered so far.
- Fulvic acid has a close association with enzymes and increases the activity of several enzymes, including alkaline phosphates, transaminase, and invertase.
- Mineral Force™ is naturally rich in fulvic acid!

The Energy Connection

“The cell is a machine driven by energy. It can thus be approached by studying matter, or by studying energy.” – Albert-Szent-Byorgyi, PhD.

Western science has traditionally defined life in terms of biochemical processes and biological activity, but there is also an underlying “subtle energy” component that is essential for true vitality. Disruption of cellular energy reduces the body's ability to absorb and utilize nutrients and significantly impairs recovery from illness or injury.

Persistent low energy and chronic fatigue is associated with high-stress lifestyles. This low-energy plague is the Epidemic of the 21st Century and is considered by many researchers to be a precursor to a host of degenerative and infectious diseases common today.

Mineral force™ is energy supercharged!

The answer to cellular energy depletion has recently been found through new discoveries in the field of Subtle Energy Physics.

Subtle Energy Technology has been researched and developed to restore the missing energy link through the infusion of beneficial Bio-Energetic patterns into substances. This process energetically balances and enhances the benefits of Mineral Force™ making it the most powerful, energetically concentrated mineral supplement available today!

Mineral Force utilizes “Structured Water!”

In addition to subtle energy enhancement, Mineral Force™ also incorporates a process that literally “reshapes” the molecular structure of water! Because the body is 75% water (blood is 94%), nothing is more important than the quality of water we drink. Therefore, the use of structured water in the formulation of NutriLink's mineral products contributes significantly to their unique effectiveness. Structured water allows better penetration of essential electrolytes through cellular membranes, improves overall hydration, and enhances the many benefits of fulvic acid beyond that of any other product available today! Structured Water means faster results, improved detoxification and renewed energy!
